01 · BIOGRAPHY

About.

Jess Blitzberg is a Brazilian-American singer-songwriter working out of Los Angeles. She writes dance-pop and vocal house in English and Portuguese.

Her songs are about empowerment, reinvention, and traditions remade on our own terms. She challenges narratives and humanizes what the world calls zero-sum games.

Her voice sits front of mix so the words land clean, moving from whisper to full expressive belt. Production is widescreen — heavy kicks, star-lit synths, strings and piano.
